

What is Primary Times?

- Primary Times is a free 'what's on, where to go' magazine targeting the parents and teachers of primary school children (aged 4-11).
- Published 7 times a year prior to each school holiday plus a 'Back to School' issue in September, Primary Times is distributed to families via their child's school bag.
- Part of a national network of 59 regional editions distributing 2.7 million copies to primary schools, Primary Times has been tried, tested and trusted since 1989.

What's in Primary Times?

- The most comprehensive what's on guide for parents of children (4-11 years) in the region.
- Local and national information specifically for parents in North and East Yorkshire.
- Reader offers and news from local communities and schools.

Primary Times Distribution

Primary Times is distributed to primary schools across North and East Yorkshire.

“We were keen to advertise via a channel which spoke direct to our audiences. There are many family publications around but with Primary Times we knew that the magazines were going direct into the homes of families and were a recognisable and trusted publication.”

Emma Rodgers, Marketing Manager Yorkshire, English Heritage
